Elections, all across India, were conducted in seven phases from 11 April 2019 to 19 May 2019 by the Election Commission of India.

The 17th Lok Sabha was formed by the members elected in the 2019 Indian general election

The Lok Sabha is composed of representatives of people chosen by direct election on the basis of Universal Adult Suffrage. The Constitution of India allows for a maximum of 550 members in the House, with 530 members representing the States and 20 representing the Union Territories something (such as a force, campaign, or movement) that is extremely large and powerful and cannot be stopped. an advertising/political juggernaut.

An individual who is very skilled at debating politics and issues related to it, but the tactics they employ to win arguments are often quite brutal and disrespectful.

If some party win a large difference they are political juggernauts

In addition, the BJP-led National Democratic Alliance (NDA) won 353 seats.[9] The BJP won 37.6%(10) of votes, while the NDA's combined vote was 45% of the 603.7 million votes that were polled.[11][12] The Indian National Congress won 52 seats, failing to get 10% of the seats needed to claim the post of Leader of the Opposition [13]

The Bharatiya Janata Party received 37.36% of the vote, the highest vote share by a political party since the 1989 general election, and won 303 seats, further increasing its substantial majority.[8]
